ECR, PPE:
§ 14

First part

‘Underlines the importance of sustained social dialogue at all levels, based on mutual trust and shared responsibilities, as one of the best instruments for finding consensual solutions and common approaches in predicting, preventing and managing restructuring processes; calls on the Member States to consult the social partners in the development of all relevant measures; asks the Commission to identify best practices on the basis of the measures applied by national, regional and local authorities, as well as those undertaken by SMEs in the sector, with a view to developing a common EU strategy for the tourism sector;’

Second part

‘reiterates its call for the Commission to submit, after consulting the relevant social partners, a proposal for a legal act on the right of workers to information and consultation and the anticipation and management of restructuring in line with the detailed recommendations set out in Parliament’s resolution of 15 January 2013 on information and consultation of workers, anticipation and management of restructuring;’

PPE, Renew, ECR:
§ 18

First part	‘Reiterates the need, as regards the amendment of Regulation (EC) No 261/2004 on the enforcement of air passenger rights and air carrier liability, for mandatory mechanisms to maintain the current level of protection of passengers in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy, including through the creation of guarantee funds or insurance contracts by airlines guaranteeing assistance, reimbursement, compensation and re-routing; stresses that passengers who booked a standalone service such as a single flight should receive the same protection as passengers who booked a travel package, especially since consumers are increasingly booking seat-only flights;’ without the words ‘mandatory’, ‘in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy, including through the creation of guarantee funds or insurance contracts by airlines guaranteeing assistance, reimbursement, compensation and re-routing’, ‘the same’, ‘as passengers who booked a travel package’
Second part	The word ‘mandatory’
Third part	‘in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy, including through the creation of guarantee funds or insurance contracts by airlines guaranteeing assistance, reimbursement, compensation and re-routing’, ‘the same’, ‘as passengers who booked a travel package’
Fourth part	‘calls therefore for minimum harmonisation of the highest standards in consumer rights in the transport, accommodation and tourism sector;’ without the words ‘minimum’ and ‘the highest standards in’
Fifth part	The word ‘minimum’
Sixth part	The words ‘the highest standards in’
